

Department Of Computer Science
Gujarat University
Grooming and Personality Development

A workshop on “Grooming and Personality Development” was organized at Department of Computer Science, Rollwala Computer Center, on 29th July 2019. The workshop was conducted by Mr. Tamiz Shaikh. He represented ‘Divya Bhaskar’ and ‘Gillette’. ‘safalta tamari muthhi maan’ was the theme of the workshop. Around 100 students attended the workshop. He talked the importance of first impression while going for an interview. He also mentioned the importance of the look of the interviewee. He emphasized as how clean shaved face can enhance the corporate look. An exercise was done where students were shown different faces of people and were asked to select the best candidates out of them. He talked about three rules of impression: Appearance, Body language and Communication. The session for very informative with a good speech delievery. An interactive question answer session was held at the end of the workshop. A questionaaire was distributed among the students to test their knowledge. MS. Hetaxi Sodha was the winner. Certificate of participation, gillete guard was given to every participant. Students also got the chance to win prizes, job placement and meet Mr. Vijendra singh.