

Gujarat University

Centre for Translation and Interpretation

Gujarat University, Centre for Translation and Interpretation, Invites Applications for Professor of Practice – Translation and Interpretation Activities

Gujarat University, a leading institution committed to academic excellence and industry relevance, invites applications for the position of Professor of Practice (POP) in Translation and Interpretation Activities. We are looking for a distinguished translation and interpretation professional with a passion for sharing expertise and shaping the translation and interpretation centre for the Society at Gujarat University.

This prestigious role offers a unique opportunity to contribute your extensive practical knowledge to develop a Translation Centre at Gujarat University.

As a Professor of Practice in Translation Activities, you will:

- Establish the translation and interpretation activity centre at Gujarat University.
- Appoint a team of translation experts.
- Use IT tools extensively for the said purpose and projects.
- Establish a translation laboratory.
- Attract projects related to the translation and interpretation of worldwide literature & Texts in various fields and accomplish the projects.
- Facilitate industry interactions through collaborative projects and potential projects from across India and the world.
- Participate in joint workshops and seminars with our regular faculty.

Eligibility Criteria (as per UGC Guidelines):

- A distinguished professional with a minimum of 15 years of demonstrable service or experience in the field of translation within the industry.
- Considerable experience at a senior level or with exemplary professional practice in translation.
- Please note: Serving or retired teaching professionals are not eligible for this position. Formal academic qualifications and publications are not the primary criteria for this role; emphasis is on your professional expertise.

Tenure: The initial engagement will be for Eleven Months with a tenure-based Contractual Appointment, with the possibility of extension for a maximum of three years.

Remuneration: The remuneration for this position will be a consolidated amount, mutually agreed upon based on your experience and the institution's norms.

Mode of Application: The mode of application will be through email. The candidate must attach, in the application email, a single PDF comprising a detailed Curriculum Vitae (CV) followed by scanned marksheets, degree certificates, certificates, etc. related to education starting from a bachelor's degree till the highest degree achieved and then the additional certificates. This single PDF must ALSO comprise all other experience certificates which prove your work in translation and interpretation activities.

Last date of Application through Email: Monday, June 16, 2025.

Email: coordinator.cti@gujaratuniversity.ac.in