A. About the University:

Gujarat University is the largest and the first University of Gujarat State incorporated under the Gujarat University Act in 1949. The University started its operation with 21 affiliated colleges and three recognized institutions. Today, the University has 252 affiliated colleges, 15 recognized institutions, 23 approved institutions, 34 PG departments, 237 PG centres and seven Post-graduate University Schools. The University has pioneered in developing curriculum and courses in emerging areas since its inception. To impart management education, the University had taken steps way back in 1976 and established the B.K. School of Business Management as one of its Post-Graduate Schools. The School started an MBA (Evening Programme) for working executives in 1983. The University has always been a pioneer in starting courses and programmes as per the market needs. Realizing the increasing demand for managers in business and industrial organizations, both in public and private sectors, the University stepped up the intake of students for management education by setting up Self-Financing Post-Graduate Centres directly under its control.

B. Course details
