O.Ph.D. 23. Submission of the Thesis

- 23.1 Prior to submission of the thesis, the scholar has to make a pre-Ph.D. presentation in the department/university/institute that may be open to all faculty members and research scholars for feedback and comments which may be suitably incorporated, if necessary in the thesis under the supervision of the guide.
- 23.2 The thesis shall be submitted to the University for Evaluation not later than 12 months after the submission of the synopsis, through the guide and forwarded by Head of the University Department/ Head of the Institution.
- 23.3 If the scholar fails to submit the thesis within 12 months from the date of submission of the synopsis, a maximum of 02 extensions of 06 months each may be given by Hon. VC. If the scholar wants to submit the thesis thereafter, it can be done only with the approval of the RDC/RRC. In that case, the scholar shall have to submit the synopsis afresh, and also required to pay the necessary fees.
- 23.4 Supplementary papers to the thesis, printed copies of any contributions to the knowledge of the subject or of any cognate branch of science that may have been published in journals or periodicals may also be included along with the thesis or given as bibliography.

O. Ph. D.24 Appointment of Examiners

- 24.1 The procedure for the appointment of examiners shall be undertaken soon after the scholar submits his/her synopsis.
- 24.2 The thesis shall be evaluated by two external examiners for the all faculty i.e. 01 examiner from within the State and 01 from outside the state/outside India.
- 24.3 The RDC/RRC shall prepare a list of 06 examiners (03 from within the state and 03 from outside the state/country), as mentioned in 24.2 for each such submission or Head of the University Department/Chairperson of the Board of Studies shall also be entitled for such nomination of external examiners.
- 24.4 Hon. VC shall appoint 02 examiners, as per the above norms, from the above list. In the case of independent Ph.D. scholars, Hon. VC shall nominate a 3rd examiner, based on the recommendation of RDC/RRC, who shall be a Ph.D. guide from any concerned department of the University.

O.Ph.D.25. Evaluation of the Thesis:

- 25.1 The university shall complete the process of evaluation of the thesis including the Viva voce within the period of 02 months from the date of submission of the thesis, unless under exceptional/unfavorable conditions.
To expedite this process of evaluation, pdf version (in electronic form, soft-copy) of the Ph.D. thesis may be sent to the external examiners through e-mail from the account of Head of the University Department/Chairperson of the Board of Studies. This responsibility is to be shared by the concern guide once appointments of the examiners are made. Research supervisor will do all interim correspondence to acquire the reports from the examiners as early as possible. For all these, electronic communication will be preferred.
- 25.2 The evaluation shall be done by 02 external examiners and the guide. Where there is a co-guide, the guide and co-guide may either prepare a joint report or separate evaluation reports.
- 25.3 The Examiners who evaluate the thesis shall report on the merit of the scholar's thesis for the Ph.D. degree in one of the following terms:
- The thesis to be accepted for the award of Ph.D. degree in the present form.
 - The thesis to be accepted for the award of Ph.D. degree after minor corrections/revisions.
 - The thesis can be passed after obtaining clarifications at the time of open Viva voce.
 - The thesis be revised and resubmitted for evaluation.
 - The thesis is rejected.
- 25.4 The format of the examiner's adjudication report is given in Appendix IV, which shall be sent to every examiner while sending the thesis. Communications and sending of the thesis and receiving of reports through email/attachments/fax shall be preferable to expedite the procedure.
- 25.5 Opinion of examiners on evaluation of the thesis:
- i. If the thesis is commended (approved) by both the external examiners, each examiner may seek clarifications/questions, if any, to be answered at the time of Viva voce.
 - ii. In case both the external examiners have not commended the thesis (not considered the thesis acceptable for Ph.D. degree), then the thesis shall be rejected and the registration be cancelled. However, Hon. VC in coordination with RDC/RRC may reconsider the merits of the thesis for re-evaluation.

- iii. In case, one of the external examiners has not commended the thesis, then the thesis shall be again referred to a third external examiner appointed by Hon. VC, from within the state or outside the state/India as the case may be. If the third examiner commends the thesis, the scholar shall be allowed to appear for the Viva voce. If the third examiner does not commend the thesis, it shall be rejected and the registration be cancelled after proper evaluation by RDC.
- 25.6 If the examiner/examiners insists on any correction/revision to be made in the thesis, the same shall be made by the scholar before the open Viva voce and certified by the guide which is to be forwarded through Head of the Department.
- 25.7 If the Examiner/Examiners explicitly suggest/s the need for revision and re-submission of the thesis for further examination, then the revised thesis, duly certified by the guide, shall be sent to the same examiner/s for further evaluation. In the absence of such a statement or if the examiner concerned specifically instructs that the revised thesis need not be sent back to him/her, the revised thesis duly certified by the guide shall be examined by the RDC/RRC and accepted, if found in order, and the scholar shall be allowed to appear for open Viva voce.
- 25.8 Where the scholar has been asked to revise/resubmit the thesis, the same shall be done within the shortest possible period and in any case not later than 01 year from the date of the communication regarding the same by the University.
- 25.9 In case the candidate fails to submit the revised thesis within 01 year, the process of thesis evaluation gets cancelled. Then, the candidate shall submit the synopsis again, along with the necessary fees, to start the process of thesis evaluation afresh.
- 25.10 The external examiners are expected to send the evaluation report within 01 month from the date of receipt of the thesis. In case of undue delay by the examiner to send the report, the University may, with the approval of Hon. VC, send the thesis to another external examiner.

O.Ph.D.26. Viva Voce:

- 26.1 On receipt of satisfactory evaluation reports, either in hard copy/e-mail/fax/any e-resource, the Ph.D. scholar shall undergo for open Viva voce, where he/she shall defend the research work in the thesis at University Department.
- 26.2 In cases where the thesis has been approved, and on receipt of communication from the University, the guide shall coordinate the conduct of open Viva voce for the scholar.
- 26.3 The guide shall fix the date and time of the Viva voce in consultation with the external examiner, who shall be appointed by Hon. VC for conducting the open Viva voce. The guide shall give wide publicity for the same. The maximum time limit for conducting open Viva voce shall be 02 months from the date of receipt of evaluation reports from the examiners. If the scholar fails to take open Viva voce within 02 months on valid grounds, Hon. VC may permit 02 months extensions on specific request/s from the guide through the Head of the Department concerned.
- 26.4 The open Viva voce shall be held on any working day of the University. In case the open Viva voce, Examiner is not in a position to travel to the University, the guide can arrange an open Viva voce with the participation of the external examiner through video-conferencing or at a place convenient to the examiner, with the permission of Hon. VC.

- 26.5 In the open Viva voce, the guide shall introduce the External examiner, who shall then conduct the open Viva voce at Department level. The scholar shall make a 30-minute presentation about the research work. After the presentation, the external examiner and the guide shall conduct the open viva voce at Departmental level.
- 26.6 If the scholar passes the open viva voce examination, the open viva voce examiner and the guide shall consolidate the recommendations and submit the same to the University, as per the format given in Appendix V, for the award of the degree based on
- a. the reports of the examiners who adjudicated the thesis and
 - b. the evaluation of the scholar's performance in the open viva voce examination.
- 26.7 The scholar who is successful in the open viva voce examination shall be declared to have qualified for the Ph.D. degree.
- 26.8 If a scholar does not satisfy the Examiners at the open viva voce examination, he/she shall be re-examined after a period of not less than three months. The scholar shall not be declared eligible for the degree unless all the Examiners unanimously declare him/her eligible for the degree.
- 26.9 In the event of both the external examiners being unavailable for the open viva voce, a third (external) examiner from within India shall be appointed by the VC, in consultation with the RDC/RRC to conduct the open viva voce.

O.Ph.D.27. Award of degree

- 27.1 A candidate becomes eligible for the award of the Ph.D. degree after fulfilling all the academic requirements prescribed by the University.
- 27.2 The Ph.D. degree shall be awarded in the discipline of the Faculty in which the scholar is registered for the Ph.D. programme. The title of the Ph.D. thesis and subject/faculty shall be mentioned in the Notification.
- 27.3 If the thesis is recommended for award of the Ph. D. degree after the open viva voce, the Registrar, with the approval of the VC, shall declare the result. A certificate to this effect shall be issued by the Registrar to the successful scholar.

O. Ph.D.28. Deposit of thesis with the UGC and the Commissioner of Higher Education

- 28.1 Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and announcement of the award of the Ph.D. the University, the scholar shall submit, through the University a soft copy of the Ph.D. thesis each to the UGC and to the Commissioner for Higher Education, Government of Gujarat, within a period of 30 days, for record and for hosting the same in INFLIBNET accessible to all Institutions/Universities.
