

GUJARAT UNIVERSITY

Gujarat University was established in the year 1949. Gujarat University is the largest and oldest University in the Gujarat state. Gujarat University has more than 45 departments and more than 350 affiliated colleges. Expression of Interest (EoI) Invited for Support Provider to run online academic programs. Various online programs in the University, under UGC DEC Guideline and Gujarat University norms.

Gujarat University's decision will be final In all matters. The following are the criteria to be fulfilled by interested organizations for supporting online Programs at Gujarat University:

Criteria

1. Interested Party should be LLP / Pvt. Ltd. company working in the area of academic services, having a presence of more than five years in India.
2. They should have international exposure in the area of online programs
3. They should have their content development team or tie up with National or international level Companies for content development
4. They will be required to submit their last three years' audited balance sheet.
5. They should have successfully trained more than 5,000 students in online programs.
6. They should have known how to manage IT-Infrastructure and online programs for national and international students.
7. They should have their own facility or collaboration with relevant organizations and industries for feedback and suggestions related to content and teaching methodology.
8. They should have a proven Placement track record for their students.
9. Gujarat University wishes to execute this agreement solely with the purpose of facilitating the latest technology and relevant courses as per industry requirements for online Programs.
10. The Gujarat University requires support from the admission to the examination and award of degrees (a to z work related) for online programs as per the prevailing credit structure and curriculum of the University or as instructed by the Gujarat University.

Interested Organization can submit their Expression of interest within seven days of duration along with documents fulfilling all criteria mentioned here to the following address or email on the following email address.

The Registrar,
Gujarat University,
Ahmedabad-380009, Gujarat.
Email: registrar@gujaratuniversity.ac.in

S d / -
Registrar

Date: 3rd March 2023
Place: Ahmedabad.